No.F.1(90)/Regn./Div.Com/2004/5244-5302 Dated the 18 August, 2004

ORDER

Huge pendency has been reported in the offices of Sub Registrars. In some of the cases the Sub Registrars complain that they are unable to cope up with the work, which has put the visiting public to avoidable inconvenience.

02. To obviate this problem, it has been decided that no public dealing will be carried out on working Saturdays. The Sub Registrars and their staff will work the whole day to clear their pendency and organize their office. No official shall take leave on these days, unless it is absolutely unavoidable

03. Further, Sub Registrars shall, henceforth be registering the GPA Instruments made or purported to be made between blood relations after determining, at their own level, the fact of relationship between the parties instead of referring the matter to their Registrars. The blood relation shall mean the relationship with father, mother; son, daughter; and brother, sister.

04. This order is to be followed scrupulously.
